ARNOT'S FALL SPELLS DEFEAT FOR HOOSIERS

Winning Runs Scamper Across Pan For Adrian When Locals' Center Fielder Stumbles After Long Fly.

ADRIAN, Mich., May 21, - When

Harry Arndt fell down in the eighth inning of the ball game here Wednesday between the locals and the South Bend aggregation going after a long drive by Kaad, a see saw contest went to Adrian, 5 to 4. The fall allowed two men to score. The fluke came after South Bend had apparently won the game, pushing over two counters in its half of the eighth and placing the tally at 4 to 3 in its favor.

The game was one of those affairs that sends the grandstand into all selves into hysterics. It was sec-

It was a pitcher's battle in which Hixon, a late southpaw addition to the Hoosier squad, had a little bit the best of Wilcox, although the latter; had better support in the field, and the advantage gained by better breaks ites to five safeties, but with passes ites to five safeties, but witht passes to first, untimely errors and good base running made them count for the nosing out of the Hoosiers.

Adrian took the lead at the start, scoring two markers on one safe bingle, an error and three walks. The Hoosiers came across nicely in the second and third with counters, but allowed the Adrian aggregation to slip! over another in the fifth.

A safety by Patterson and doubles by Arndt and Foley allowed the Hoosiers to put over two in their half of the eight session. But, with the god of luck still hovering over the Adrianites, they put over two in their half of the same frame.
